TR library to host art exhibition and reception

TOMS RIVER - Ocean County Library's Toms River branch, 101 Washington St., will host its annual Youth Art Month exhibition during March.

The exhibition will include work by students in the Toms River Regional School District's elementary, intermediate and high schools.

An artists' reception will be held 6 p.m. Monday March 9 at the branch. Everyone is welcome to attend this free reception. Registration is not required.

Library staff from the Young Adult and Youth Services departments, along with members of the Youth Advisory Board, will be on hand to greet and assist visitors.
