Free Jazz concerts at Tuckerton, Jackson

TOMS RIVER - Two library branches will host saxophonist Boris Kurganov in concert Saturday, Aug. 22 as part of Ocean County Library's 90th anniversary.

Kurganov will celebrate the 1980s by playing the memorable hits from the decade. Listen to the smooth sounds of pop hits, movie music, show tunes and international hits during these free concerts.

Born in Omsk, Russia, he earned his Master's degree in Music from the Moscow State Institute of Culture in Moscow. He has performed around the world since his professional debut in 1985, including appearances in Finland, Sweden, France, the Copenhagen Jazz Festival and the Montreal Jazz Festival.

Since moving to New York City in 2000 he has become popular in the NYC jazz scene, performing in local jazz venues and Carnegie Hall.

He will perform at the Tuckerton branch, 380 Bay Ave., 609-296-1470 at 11 a.m. and the Jackson branch, 2 Jackson Dr., 732-928-4400 at 3 p.m.

The concerts are free and open to the public but registration is required. To register telephone the branch or go to the library website: www.theoceancountylibrary.org, click on the "Events & News" icon, then click on "Calendar of Events."
