Beatlemania Coming to Toms River Library

TOMS RIVER – New York Times bestselling author Vivek Tiwary and a Beatles tribute band will bring Beatlemania to the Toms River Branch of the Ocean County Library, 101 Washington St. on Saturday, Aug. 19 at 12 p.m.

Tiwary, a Tony award winning Broadway producer and author, will discuss his book “The Fifth Beatle” that chronicles the life of the Beatles manager, Brian Epstein.

The Beatles tribute band “Something New, Something New” will follow Tiwary with a concert.

“The Fifth Beatle” will be available for purchase and signing. Seating is limited, please register by calling 732-349-6200 or visit theoceancountylibrary.org/events

Free parking is available on Saturday in the top two levels of the Toms River parking garage located behind the library and in the Ocean County parking garage on Hooper Avenue.
