Social Security Information Session Coming to Jackson Library

JACKSON – Social Security is the country's largest federal program and the sole means of support for retirees. The Jackson Branch of the Ocean County Library will host an informational session on Social Security at 6 p.m., Thursday, August 10.

The program will offer information to help retirees make the best decision regarding Social Security benefits.

The branch is located at 2 Jackson Drive. This event is free but registration is required. To register call 732-928-4400, or visit tinyurl.com/JacksonSocialSecurity
