Find Your Child's "Path Toward College" at the Ocean County Library

TOMS RIVER - Your child aims for college. Which ones fit best, educationally and economically? College GPS of Old Bridge opens a "Path Toward College" during April at the Ocean County Library branches in Toms River, Brick Township and Point Pleasant.

The info-packed workshop explains the advantages of early planning, demystifies financial aid, and offers essential details about FAFSA preparation. The firm helps complete financial aid forms, and recommends strategies for eligibility and for tax advantages.

College GPS is a member of the New Jersey Association of College Admissions Counselors (NJCAC).

Workshops take place:

- Monday, April 16, 7 – 8:30 PM, Point Pleasant Branch, 834 Beaver Dam Road
- Tuesday, April 24, 7 – 8:15 PM, Brick Township Branch, 301 Chambersbridge Road
- Wednesday, April 25, 7 – 8:30 PM, Mancini Hall, Toms River Branch, 101 Washington Street

The programs are free and open to the public. Registration is required. Sign up in the "Events" portal at <http://www.theoceancountylibrary.org>.
