Artist Explores the Mystery of Creation at the Ocean County Library

TOMS RIVER – The Ocean County Library will host the “Transcendent Mystery of Creation,” exhibit by Barbara Clair Howard during the month of July at the Toms River Branch, 101 Washington St.

Howard’s collection of art will be displayed in the second floor gallery throughout the month of July and will consist of watercolor paintings and collages.

Howard is a retired marriage and family therapist. She considers herself a lifelong artist and has formal training in many aspects of art. She has taught watercolor classes at Ocean County College and at the YMCA.

“I am basically a water colorist; however, I include collaging, acrylics and pen and ink in my renderings. I enjoy landscapes, barns and lighthouses, and people as subjects of my paintings. My artistic world revolves around dreaming, planning and creating my visions. I find beauty in the simple and the ugly,” Howard said.
